

Government College for Women, Hisar

Report

NSS One Day Camp

Date- 27-03-2025

A One-day camp was organized under the direction of Principal of the college, Dr. Satbir Sanga on 27th March, 2025 by both units of National Service Scheme of Government Women's College, Hisar. In the morning session cleanliness drive was organized. In which maintenance of parking area, NSS park etc was done by students with great enthusiasm. After that students take refreshments break. Then after a motivational lecture on the topic "Unleashing Your Potential: The Power of Self-Motivation" was organized. The resource person of the lecture was Dr. Rakesh Kumar, Assistant professor of Chemistry of GCW Hisar. The programme was chaired by the formal welcome and introduction of the resource person by Ms. Heena Pahuja, N.S.S P.O of Unit I. Then she welcomes the speaker for addressing the students. The speaker began by discussing the core concept of self-motivation, explaining that true success stems from an individual's internal drive to overcome obstacles and work toward their goals. They stressed that self-motivation is not something innate but can be cultivated through habits, mindset, and persistence. He also motivates the volunteers and said that by working with the spirit of service, we can bring change in the society. After that the resource person, Overall, the awareness programme was insightful and was very successfully conducted. At the end of the programme Ms. Madhu Bala PO of unit 2 thanks the speaker of the day. A total of 72 volunteers of both units were present in this camp. Dr.Kamlesh, Dr. Suman Bansal and Ms. Sunita members of NSS units were also present in this camp.

Heena
Madhu Bala
27.03.2025

[Handwritten signature]